EDWARD REYNOLDS, EDITOR.

MIDDLETOWN, DEL.

SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 29, 1875.

GEORGE ALFRED TOWNSEND has become connected, in an editorial capacity, with the St. Louis Mo., Times.—Mr. T. is a fluent writer and gifted journalist, and will no doubt prove a valuable acquisition to the staff of the Times.

PERSONAL.—C. H. Vanderford, Esq, former editor of the TRANSCRIPT was in town in the early part of the week. Mr. V. is now engaged in publishing the "Old Commonwealth" at Harrisonburg, Va.," and is, we are gratified to say, meeting with much success in his new sphere. Long may he wave.

THE FOLIO.—The June number of this excellent musical monthly has been received and, as usual, is full of good things pleasing to lovers of the art divine. Its columns abound in interesting notes about the doings of the great musicians, vocalists and actors. Short biographical sketches of great composers are found in its pages making it exceedingly interesting and valuable to persons who regard such things. We cordially commend the Folio to our musical amateurs. The present number contains four songs and two instrumental pieces besides over thirty pages of choice miscellaneous reading; and all this twelve times a year for the small sum of $1.60.

Voluntary Advice and its Givers.

There are many people who are ever ready and anxious to volunteer their advice on all matters and at all times—in season and out of season. Nothing is ever done as well, and nobody knows how to do as well as these allwise individuals can do, or tell those who are doing how to do. Do they enter a lady's parlor they at once descry some improvement that could be made in the arrangement of the furniture. This picture is hung wrong, or that one is not in the right place or would look better somewhere else. The piano would be better in some other part of the room or the sofa in some other corner, and so on until they would—if they could get to—rearrange, to suit their ideas, the whole room. If a man is building a house or store, these all-knowing busybodies are on hand ready to volunteer their advice as to how it should be built and how it could be improved They appear to think—at least they act as if they did—that nobody has such good taste, or knows as well how things ought to be done as they do. They forget—or rather don't stop to think—that, perhaps, other people may have some ideas or wishes of their own, and that their advice is not wanted. Frequently their "sweetness is wasted on the desert air," or, like themselves, treated with the contempt it deserves. In some instances it falls like water upon a goose's back, and passes off without doing any harm; but there are occasions when this unasked-for advice is accepted, to the injury of the party to whom it is given. It sometimes happens that young persons will rely upon the professed experience of these advice givers and yield to their persuasions. If good should result from pursuing their advice they would be perfectly willing to take great credit to themselves, but if harm follows, they are not quite so ready to take the censure, but rest contented with saying they "meant it for the best," and the victim of their presumptuous advice must suffer from their mistake. When people busy themselves about the affairs of others and presume to give advice, unasked, they ought to bear the responsibility of their intermeddling, and if harm results they ought to make it good. Could this be done a few times perhaps these busy-bodies could be made to attend to their own business.

THE DELAWARE AND CHESAPEAKE SHIP CANAL.—We are not at all surprised, as Colonel Forney relates, that English capitalists should have been struck with the feasibility, the profitable use, and the manifest advantage that would accrue to the commercial marine of all nations by cutting a ship canal across the Eastern Shore Peninsula from the Chesapeake Bay to the Delaware. The national, not less than the local, importance of such a canal is so self-evident that it is scarcely necessary to dwell upon a point so obvious. Baltimore, by reason of her central geographical position, is the ocean gateway to the great interior cities of the West.—Baltimore Gazette.

The decoration of the graves of the Federal and Confederate dead at Elmwood Cemetery, Memphis, Tennessee, Monday, was an event which points well the moral of fraternization in the matter of a mutually glorious history. The largest procession ever seen in Memphis, with the exceptin of that in honor of the memory of General Lee, was formed. The ex-federal soldiers, almost to a man, turned out with the ex-Confederates, and in the ranks were seen the tattered battle flags of both armies. At no time since the war has there been such an enthusiastic intermingling of the blue and the gray.

Mabel H. Young, the little five-year-old girl who was the victim of an atrocious outrage in the tower of the Warren Avenue Baptist Church, Boston, Sunday, died Monday evening. Cumulative evidence, among other things bloodstains upon his collar, handkerchief and clothing, strengthens the belief in the guilt of the sexton, Thomas Piper, aged twenty-six years, who is under arrest. The feel against him is intense.

Proceedings of Court.

The Superior Court began its spring term on Monday, Judges Gilpin and Houston presiding. Messrs. H. C. Turner and John V. Rice were admitted and qualified as members of the bar. The Trial List was taken up and a large number of cases disposed of by settlement, postponement or otherwise. But comparatively few cases remain to be tried.

The Grand jury returned true bills against George Reavis, larceny; Andrew Dickerson or Johnson, larceny; Mary Gamm, selling liquor to minors. The whole afternoon was occupied in trying the case of George S. Hollister vs. Robert Armstrong—Replevin.—This case is as follows: In May, 1873, Deal & Horner hired the Jefferson House, in New Castle, and fitted it up for the purpose of hotel keeping. In the course of their purchase they bought a bill of liquor from John W. Gray, a commission liquor seller in Philadelphia. Gray was satisfied as to Deal and Horner's ability to pay. Horner was a young man of no experience. Deal was the practical man but had very poor health. Horner raised his portion of the partnership money, but Deal was unable so to do. Deal's wife who was to take charge of the hotel, grew unable Horner now got dissatisfied. On July 9, 1873, they made a sale to George S. Hollister. The creditors of Deal & Horner afterwards issued writs of foreign attachment and siezed the goods that Hollister bought. The question at issue was whether the sale was bona fide.

Messrs. Spruance and Bradford appear for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Gray Rodney and Cooper for defendant. The case lasted until 6 p. m., when Court adjourned until Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

TUESDAY, MAY 25.

The case of Hollister vs. Armstrong was resumed, and nearly the rest of the day was consumed by the plaintiff—in proving details, &c.

At 4.20 p. m. the Grand Jury made their report, received the usual thanks of the Court and were discharged. The above mentioned case was then resumed by Mr. Gray for the defence, but was again suspended for the presentation of resolutions, addresses, &c., in reference to the death of Judge Willard Hall.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 26.

Hollister ve. Armstrong lasted all day.

General News.

Queen Victoria, England's most gracious sovereign, was fifty-six years old last Monday.

Gov. Hartranft has been renominated for Governor of Pennsylvania by the Republicans, and Henry Rawle for State Treasurer.

Mr. Beardley, Agent and Consul at Cairo, Egypt, has sent a telegram to the State Department, under date of the 19th inst., saying that "Egypt accepts the invitation to be represented at Philadelphia.

Official notice has been received at Washington from Hon. George P. Marsh, United States minister at Rome, that the Italian government will take part in the exhibition of 1876 to be held at Philadelphia, and appoint a commission for that purpose

Despatches from all parts of Minnesota, published in the St. Paul Pioneer-Press, show that there are no grasshoppers in the districts devastated by these pests last year, nor in any part of the State except in a small area on the Great Bend of the Mississippi river, and even in this district their numbers are comparatively small.

In the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church South, at St. Louis, last week, Rev. Dr. Brown, Chairman of the Committee on Friendly Relations between the Northern and Southern Churches, made a report, which was laid over. It appears from this report that no satisfactory result was reached.

The Rev. C. W. Andrews, D. D., of Shepherdstown, West Virginia, one of the most eminent divines of the Episcopal Church, died in Fredericksburg, Va., on Monday evening. He was on his way to attend the Episcopal Council held in Richmond last week, when he was taken sick, and stopped in Fredericksburg with friends. He was sixty-eight years of age

Persons arriving at Jefferson City, Mo., from all directions, say that most of the "grasshopper talk" is all bosh; that grasshoppers can be scooped up by the bushel in some counties, but that they are doing little or no damage to the crops They assert that the Governor's proclamation, setting apart June 3d as a day of fasting and prayer for deliverance from the "scourge," has done great injury, and that immigration to the State will be greatly retarded thereby. Gov. Hardin presided at a church meeting in Jefferson City, Sunday, at which resolutions were passed setting forth that grasshoppers, chinch bugs, &c., were ruining the farmers, and suggesting steps for thier relief.

Local and State Affairs.

Minor Topics.

The commencement exercises at Delaware College will take place on the 15th and 16th of June.

Strawberry shipments begun this week over the Delaware Railroad, and will doubtless be greatly increased next week.

Arnold S. Naudain, Esq., has taken out letters of administration upon the estate of his mother, Mrs. S. A. Naudain.

J. & W. Merrick will have a public sale of a large number of horses, carriages and harness at the bazaar in Wilmington to-day.

Messrs. J. A. Pearce, Geo. & H. W. Vickers advertise several valuable farms to be sold by them as trustees at public sale next month.

Mr. Isaac Frazier, of Glasgow, had a runaway near Hare's Corner last Friday, and was thrown out of his carriage, but not much hurt.

The annual meeting of the Peninsula Peach Growers' Association, will be held on the third Tuesday of June, and will be an important one.

Letters Testamentary have been granted by Register Biggs to Mrs. Margaret Cavender on the estate of James A. Cavender, deceased. See Notice.

Old Swedes' church celebrated its 176th anniversary last Sunday. As old as it is the old building is in good condition and bids fair to last a long time yet.

John E. Lindemore, a breakman on the P. W. & B. R. R., was killed by being knocked from the top of a car near Gray's Ferry last Friday night.

PEACH BASKETS.—Messrs. E. R. Cochran, Richard Townsend and W. W. Tschudy advertise a large quantity of peach baskets. Now is the time to buy.

Six culprits made the acquaintance of the county pillory and whipping post at New Castle last Saturday; included among them were the Wilmington incendiaries.

A little boy, 2½ years old, son of J B Ross, of Wyoming, was drowned in the pond near that place last week, in sight of his mother who was unable to render him any assistance He was playing in a boat and fell overboard.

The person who will commence pitching quoits at six o'clock in the morning is rather excusable; but the man who will keep up that game until nine o'clock at night is the one whom Barnum is looking for and all the world wishes to see.

Found.

The body of the man who fell overboard from the steamship Indiana, in the Delaware, a few weeks ago was found by a Jersey fisherman on Thursday.

St. Anne's Church.

A change has been recently made in the hours of service at St Anne's P E Church, and they are, now, as follows:—Sunday 10 A M, and 6:30 P M; Friday, 5 P M Sunday School 9 A M.

Painful Accident.

Mr Samuel Deshane, living near Chesapeake City, Md, was thrown from his dearborn at the railroad crossing in Middletown, on Thursday morning, and falling upon his head, he was pretty badly hurt He was carried into the National Hotel, and it was found that his neck was slightly dislocated, causing severe pain

Drowned at New Castle.

John W Wells, a Wilmington butcher, wandered to the wharves at New Castle on Wednesday, while in an intoxicated condition, and was not again seen, until his body was found floating in the river on Thursday morning He was drawn out and an inquest held by Coroner Groves It is supposed he fell over the wharf and was too drunk to save himself, and drowned.

All about a Man.

Two colored damsels being rivals for the affections of a youthful Sambo, met just beyond the railroad on Tuesday evening, and after some word quarreling concluded to settle the matter then and there, so at it they went scratching, clawing and mauling and making the blood and wool fly to an extent that must have gratified the most ardent advocate of equal rights, until they were separated by the bystanders, and departed, each her own way, sadder if not better satisfied.

The Potato Bugs.

These pests have put in an appearance in strong force. In many places the young plants are eaten off as fast as they come up, and unless their ravages can be stayed the prospect for potatoes this year is very slender. A gentleman living below Odessa thought to fool the bugs by putting his potato patch way down along the river, where he imagined they couldn't find it, but they didn't fool worth a cent. He went to look at his potatoes a few days ago and found that the plagued bugs had eaten the plants off close to the ground, and one old fellow was stationed upon a clod standing guard over a place where a young plant was just breaking through the ground waiting for it to come up. So he avers.

Change in Time on the Delaware R. R.

On Monday next an important change in the time table on the Delaware Railroad will go into effect. The train which now leaves Harrington at 7:20 A M, and Middletown at 9:10 will leave Harrington at 5:20 A M and Middletown at 7:04, arriving in Philadelphia at 9:20 The train which now leaves this place at 2:30 P M will leave here at 3:14—about three-quarters of an hour later. The morning mail from Philadelphia will reach here at 10:23 instead of 11:17 as now No change is made in the south-bound evening train The time of the evening "mixed" train is also changed—the morning train will continue unchanged, but the north-bound train which now leaves here at 5:24 P M, will then leave at 7:45 By this new arrangement persons going to Philadelphia will have two hours more in the city than heretofore.

Fine Asparagus.

Mr. Samuel Fenimore sent to our office a few days ago seven fine bunches of Giant Asparagus, for which we tender thanks.

Episcopal Convention.

The annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Delaware, will assemble in St. Andrew's Church Wilmington, on Wednesday, June 2d, at 9 A. M.

Rev. Mr. Bristor's Lectures.

The next lecture will be delivered at Bethel Church, on Thursday evening next. Subject —"the Fashion." Free to all.

The Weather.

The drouth which has held sway for so long and made the ground so dry and dusty was partially broken on Tuesday by a gentle rain Not a great deal of water fell, yet there was enough to settle the dust, refresh vegetation and give the young crops a start, and everything looked better for the rain It did not extend very far down the State In the vicinity of Clayton the ground was scarcely more than sprinkled and the drouth continues unbroken Rain is very much needed and unless some comes pretty soon the wheat crop won't be worth much.

Store Robbed.

The store of Thomas Conrey, Esq, in Chesapeake City, was entered, by prying open the front door with an ax, on last Monday night, and fine goods, clothing, etc, to the amount of $1,000 taken therefrom. The store is situated in the centre of the town, and on the main street where persons are passing pretty much all night, and it is a wonder how the thieves could make so much noise without being detected. No one sleeps in the building, and the knowledge of this fact led the thieves to make such an extensive raid. Up to last accounts, nothing had been heard from the stolen goods, yet every effort is being made to catch the rascals. L

Suicide.

Mr. Joshua F. Biddle, a farmer, well known in this vicinity, committed suicide by hanging himself, at his residence on the farm of Judge E. G. Bradford in Middle Neck, Cecil county, Md., on Tuesday last. He was in Middletown in the morning, and complained of feeling very nervous. Returning home he ate his dinner as usual, lit his pipe and walked out. It seems that he went directly to the barn, climbed upon a bin, took a trace rope, tied one end to a rafter and the other about his neck, then jumped from the bin and was strangled by the rope.

Mr. Biddle had been laboring under mental depression for several weeks brought about by a severe nervousness to which he has been for some time subject, but nobody thought he had any idea of committing suicide. He was about 55 years of age, and in no financial difficulties.

Ice Cream Saloons.

Mr. F. Taroni has taken the store-room on the corner of Main and Broad streets, formerly occupied by J. F. Eliason and fitted it up nicely as a bread, cake and confectionery store and ice cream saloon. Middletown can now boast of two as fine, if not the finest, ice cream saloons on the Peninsula. Mr. Rice, at the Town Hall, has a very large and commodious saloon handsomely fitted up and is ever ready and willing to accommodate the public with all manner of good things. He keeps on hand a large supply of small paper boxes for ice cream in which it may be carried to any reasonable distance, thus affording paterfamilias a fine chance to take the cooling luxury home to their bereaved families when they stay out a little too late in the evening.

The Trains on the Kent County R. R.,

From Chestertown to Masseys, now run through to Clayton, instead of connecting with the Queen Annes road on to Townsend. The change was made last Monday. This makes Clayton quite a railroad centre; the leading station on the Delaware road and the termini of two others, the Maryland & Delaware and the Kent County roads. It is understood that the P. W. & B. Co. will put in additional siding for the Kent road, from which it is to be inferred that the new arrangement is to be permanent, though there are intimations that the Kent may in time run on through to Bombay Hook. This hardly seems probable, however. The reason for the change on the part of the Kent road, we understand, was the high freight tariff it was subjected to by the old route. For instance, an article freighted from Philadelphia, for which the P. W. & B. would charge 25 cts., to Townsend, the Queen Annes road would also charge 25 cts. to Masseys, and then the Kent road would have to charge 25 cts. more to Chestertown, making 75 cents in all. Now the 25 cents from Townsend to Masseys is saved to the shippers, and passengers by the new route only have to change cars once—at Clayton.—Smyrna Times.

Civil Rights with a Vengeance.

On Monday last a young negro walked into the post office at Newark, and, impudently tapping Mr. Miller, the postmaster, upon the shoulder, insolently demanded possession of the office. Mr. M. not knowing who the demandant was, replied by ordering the impertinent negro out of the office. Thereupon the latter drew his papers and showed his authority for his demand as a U. S. official appointed to inspect the workings of post offices and announcing himself as a son of the notorious Fred. Douglass. Mr. Miller answered that he was busy at that time assorting the morning mail, but that as soon as that was accomplished and the mail distributed, he would give up possession to the officer, and allow him to make his inspection. This did not satisfy the indignant, and consequential "American citizen of African descent" and he marched out of the office threatening vengeance, and promising to report Mr. Miller to the Postal authorities for not yielding the office when he demanded it.

Our informant says that the negro acted in a most disgustingly impudent manner.

Mr. Miller is a gentleman of remarkably mild and courteous manners and not apt to be over hasty in taking or avenging insults, but had he kicked that negro out of his office he would have but served him right.

Maryland Affairs.

John Penington, for many years proprietor of the hotel at Galena, died last week in his 64th year.

C. C. Lloyd, of Newtown, Worcester county, has sold his farm in Nassawaddux, to Mrs. Clarence Barnes for 11,000.

The farm of Gen. R. Thomas 149 acres, near Taverner's woods, in Talbot county, has been sold to Messrs. Delcamp and Frick, of Pennsylvania, for $1,800

The mill house at Pott's Mills, belonging to Mr. William T. Elban, in Talbot county, was destroyed by fire on Friday last. Loss about $5,000; insured for $3,000.

Susan Holden was tried in Worcester county court last week for larceny, found guilty and sentenced to the penitentiary till the first day of June, 1876.

Benjamin Lankford, of Somerset county, who has an estate valued at $100,000, at the suggestion of his second wife, recently gave to each of his five daughters a farm worth $16,000. This does not debar them from coming in for a share of the residue of the estate at their father's death.

A week or so ago Mr. Kelley, of Cecil co., while burning brush, on the Marley farm, placed his vest and pocket-book, containing about $70, on a stump, and while engaged a short distance off, it caught fire, and before he discovered it, the whole was consumed.

A tea party was given at Easton, Talbot county, last week, for the benefit of the Orphans' Home, the net profits of which were 667.93. The committee acknowledge the receipt of two large pound cakes from Mr. A. D. Egerton and Governor Groome, and a lot of pressed beef from Mr. Turner, of Baltimore.

On the 2d of June the annual convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church will meet at St. Paul's Church, Centreville, Queen Ann's county, and remain in session for two days. The convention will be composed of all the clergy and a delegate from each parish in the diocese of Easton, which includes the whole of the Eastern Shore. About sixty-five clergy and laymen are expected to be present.

The following real estate was sold in Kent county on Thursday last. An undivided half of the storehouse in Galena, belonging to the estate of the late A. L. Gooding, to Kent Lodge, I. O. O. F., for $428, subject to dower; storehouse and dwelling in Chestertown to Wm. T. Miller for $1,329 subject to dower; Gooding's mill, subject to rent charge of $115 per annum and dower to C. H. J. Sparks for $4,210.

CUT THIS OUT,

It May Save Your Life.

There is no person living but who suffers more or less with Lung Disease, Coughs, Colds or Consumption, yet some would die rather than pay 75 cents for a bottle of medicine that would cure them. Dr. A. Boschee's German Syrup has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wondrous cures astonish every one that try it. If you doubt what we say in print, cut this out and take it to Dr. G. G. Chamberlain, Middletown, Del., or H. P. Baker, Odessa, Del. and get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it, or a regular size for 75 cts.

Special Notices.

EVERY SEVEN YEARS, physiologists say, the human body is entirely changed and renewed. Every moment of our lives, every part of our bodies is wearing out and is being built up anew of fresh matter. This work is accomplished by the blood which goes through every part. But if the blood becomes weak or vitiated, and does not perform its work properly, the system is actually poisoned by the worn-out matter clogging the vital organs instead of leaving the body. For dyspepsia, biliousness, kidney, skin and liver troubles, fevers and all deseases arising from vitiated blood, DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS are a sovereign remedy.

JONES'

Adjustable Peach Assorter.

With the above machine, a man with the assistance of two good boys can easily cull 1000 baskets of peaches per day, taking out the leaves, soft and specked fruit, and assort the balance into three sizes (cullings, primes, and extras,) far more accurately than it can be done by hand; with an increased force, the capacity of the machine is (comparatively speaking) unlimited. But as the reputation of the first Assorter was fully sustained by those in use last season, I merely wish to state that they will be and those who may favor me with their orders will have until the 25th of May to countermand the same, should the fruit be injured in the meantime. For terms please see circular. The price therin named is the result of close figuring, based upon what they cost me to have them built by the hundred, and as the probability is that so many will not be needed hereafter, it will be to the growers' interest to secure them this season.

Humorous.

Truth will Out.

Jakey, his Ma and the Sunday School Teacher.

Jakey crept up and sat down by his mother's side as she was looking out of the window yesterday morning. After a few minutes of silence, he broke out with—

'Ma, ain't Pa's name Jacob?'

'Yes, Jakey.'

'If I was called young Jacob, he'd be called old Jacob, wouldn't he?'

'Yes, my dear; what makes you ask such a question as that?'

'Nothing, only I heard something about him last night.'

Mrs. Watts suddenly became interested. 'What was it, my son?'

'Oh, nothing much; something the new Sunday School teacher said.'

'You oughtn't to have anything your mother don't know, Jakey,' coaxingly plead Mrs. Watts.

'Well, if you must go poking into everything, I'll tell you. The new teacher says to me, 'What's your name, my little man?' and when I said Jacob, he asked me if I ever heard of old Jacob, and I thought that was pa's name, so I told him I guess I had, but I'd like to hear what he had to say about him. He said old Jacob used to be a little boy once just like me, and had bean-shooters and stilts, and used to play hookey and get licked, and used to tend cattle'—

'Yes, I believe he said his father used to keep a cow,' interrupted Mrs. Watts.

'And he hogged his brother out of something or other, and he got struck with a young woman named Rachel [Mrs Watts became still more interested], and was going to marry her, but her old man fooled him and made him marry his other daughter; but pa said he guessed he was nobody's fool, and married them both.'

'The wretch!' ejaculated Mrs. Watts, shaking her fist at Mr. Watts's slipper.

'He said old Jacob had a dozen or two children, and'—

'Did I marry him for this?' exclaimed Mrs. Watts, sobbing and throwing herself on the sofa, making all the springs hum like a set of tuning-forks.

Jakey said he didn't know what she married him for, but she wouldn't catch him telling her anything very soon again if she was going to kick up such a row about it, and went out of the room highly indignant.

When Mr. Watts came home he met Mrs. Watts in the hall, with a very red face, who pointed her finger at him and jerked out the word 'Villain!' and asked him if he could look his innocent wife and infant son in the face. Mr. Watts showed that he could by staring very hard alternately at Jakey and Mrs. Watts.

'I know where you go, sir, when you stay away from home,' continued Mrs. Watts; 'I've heard the story of your perfidy. Can't you tell me how Rachel and that other woman is to-day?' she asked with forced calmness. Mr. Watts confessed his inability to enlighten her on the health of the ladies about whom she was so solicitous. Mrs. Watts said that she always knew that something like this would occur, and ended with another hysterical interrogation after the children's health, but not receiving any satisfactory answer, she threw herself on the sofa again and sobbed and asked herself a few times why she had ever left her mother's house, and then she called Jakey to her and told him that they would have to live alone in a little house and be very poor, and maybe not have enought to eat, which made that hopeful utter a series of most doleful howls and hasten down to the kitchen to examine the larder.

Later in the day Mrs. Lewis happened in, and Mrs. Watts confided to her the story of her husband's villainy. Of course, Mrs. Lewis was very properly shocked, and tried to impress upon Mrs. Watts the necessity of being philosophical, and left with the observation that she had never yet seen a man with a mole on his nose who did not, sooner or later, prove to be a rascal.

Towards evening Jackey was sitting on the steps, having recovered from his grief of the morning, when the Sunday School teacher chanced to pass by, and Jakey hailed him with: 'Say, mister, I told my mother what you told me about old Jacob last night, and there has been the old scratch to pay ever since. Ma called pa a villain and a bloody thief, and tried to break her back on the sofa, and said that there wouldn't be anything to eat, and there ain't been such a time since pa offered to kiss Aunt Jane good-by. Maybe you had better drop in and see the old lady, mister; she ain't so bad as she was.'

The teacher, after some pressing, accompanied Jakey into the house, and was presented to Mrs. Watts in the parlor.

Mrs. Watts began to thank him for disclosing her husband's perfidy, but he disclaimed having done anything of the kind, and at length, after considerable talking, it was discovered that Jakey had misapplied the story of the patriarch Jacob. Mrs Watts started right out to hunt up Jacob, and when she found him astonished him again by being as loving as she had been distant. Jakey is contented in the fact that there is no immediate prospect of a lack of supplies in the family, and Mrs. Watts would be perfectly happy if she could only shut Mrs. Lewis's mouth.—Baltimore American.

Messenger, Cosmo and Mazeppa Stallion,

TANKERVILLE, JR.

TANKERVILLE, JR. is a black, with a star in his forehead, eight years old, very handsomely formed, 15¾ hands high, with strong Messenger points; was raised by Purser John N. Hambleton, of the U. S. Navy. TANKERVILLE, JR., by Tankerville, the property of Hon. James G. Earle; dam by Cosmo, from a Mazeppa mare; g s, Morgan Black Hawk; g g s, David Hill's Black Hawk, of Bridgeport, Vt.; g g g s, Sherman Morgan; g g g g s, Justin Morgan; Morgan Black Hawk's dam, Messenger mare, sired by Col. Clark's Messenger horse, out of a Messenger mare.—By his dam's side he took the first premium for colts of his age at the Fair held at Saratoga Springs, N.Y., his dam also drawing a premium. "He continued to take the highest prize each year following, until, under the rules of the neighboring societies, he could be no longer entered in competition." Subsequently, at the Maryland State Fair, in 1856, he took the first premium over Alexander, owned by G. M. Felton, Stockbridge Chief, and other fine horses, (see Nov. number of American Farmer, 1856,) and in 1857, the first premium over Col. Carroll's Blackhawk, Henry Clay, &c. (See American Farmer, November, 1857.) Tankerville's dam was brought to Maryland from New York. She was sired by Hambletonian, (again Messenger blood,) and was a mare of elegant style and action. She was awarded the highest premium, as the best brood mare of her class, at the Maryland State Fair in 1856. (See Amer. Farmer, November, 1856.) It will be thus seen that Tankerville has a large infusion of the highly valued Messenger and fast trotting stock; that he is descended from premium animals on both sides, and that his Morgan blood is derived from the Sherman family, through Hill's Blackhawk, the most approved of that stock for harness use. Pedigree of Cosmo: Cosmo was by imported Sky Lark; his dam by the famed imp. Priam, out of Sophia, by Red Gauntlet, out of Col. Singleton's celebrated four mile race mare Clara Fisher. Pedigree of Mazeppa: Mazeppa by Contention, his dam by Francisco, grand dam by Jack Andrews, great grand dam by Dare Devil, imported, great great grand dam by Clockfast, imported, —— Contention by Sir Archie; Francisco was got by Hambletonian, imported; his dam by Dr. Dixon's celebrated Nightingale, and she descended from old Nelpomene, from which was Pill Box, the grand dam of Sally Walker, and the dam of Chanticleer by Wildair. The Dare Devil mare was the full sister of Collier Harrison's celebrated Brutus. The Jack Andrews mare was the dam of Jemina Wilkinson. azeppa was full brother to Florida, and both were excellent four mile horses. ☞The above pedigree of azeppa was given to me by Judge Jno. Glenn of Balt., his owner, in a letter dated Oct. 26, 1848.—John N. Hambleton.

TANKERVILLE, JR. will make the present season at St. Georges, Mondays and Tuesdays; at Odessa, Wednesdays and Thursdays; at Middletown, Fridays and Saturdays.

TERMS.—$25 to insure a mare with foal. $15 by the season, and $10 single service. WM. POLK,

April 10—tf. E. R. COCHRAN.

THE THOROUGH-BRED HORSE

LEGATEE,

BY LEXINGTON,

Dam, Levity, by Imp. Trustee, &c., was bred by the late R. A. Alexander, of Ky., and raised by ex-Gov. Bowie, of Md.

LEGATEE is a beautiful rich bay, 15½ hands high, remarkably well built and very strong.—He possesses not only the very best crosses for running but also for trotting, his dam being by Imp. Trustee, the sire of the great trotting gelding that trotted twenty (20) miles in less than one hour; his sire, Lexington, second to none as a sire and racer. LEGATEE has done some good running and is a very fine trotter and driver.

He will stand the coming season at the Hotel in Odessa, Monday and Tuesday, March 22d and 23d; at Mr. Wm. Diehl's, between McDonough and Port Penn, Wednesday and Thursday, 24th and 25th, where he may be found every other week till June 24th. The mean time he will be near Warwick, Md.

Medical.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing the merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, and in Bilious Diseases.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is widely known as one of the most effectual remedies ever discovered for cleansing the system and purifying the blood. It has stood the test of years, with a constantly-growing reputation, based on its intrinsic virtues, and sustained by its remarkable cures. So mild as to be safe and beneficial to children, and yet so searching as to effectually purge out the great corruptions of the blood, such as the scrofulous and syphilitic contamination. Impurities, or diseases that have lurked in the system for years, soon yield to this powerful antidote and disappear. Hence its wonderful cures, many of which are publicly known, of Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Ulcers, Eruptions, and eruptive disorders of the skin, Tumors, Blotches, Boils, Pimples, Pustules, Sores, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, and internal Ulcerations of the Uterus, Stomach, and Liver. It also cures other complaints, to which it would not seem especially adapted, such as Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Fits, Neuralgia, Heart Disease, Female Weakness, Debility, and Leucorrhœa, when they are manifestations of the scrofulous poisons.

It is an excellent restorer of health and strength in the Spring. By renewing the appetite and vigor of the digestive organs, it dissipates the depression and listless languor of the season. Even when no disorder appears, people feel better, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. The system moves on with renewed vigor and a new lease of life.
